If you didn't get the full Economic Impact Payment, you may be eligible to claim the Recovery Rebate Credit

The IRS and Treasury have issued all first and second Economic Impact Payments.

If you didn't get any Economic Impact Payments or got less than the full amounts, you may qualify for the Recovery Rebate Credit and must file a 2020 tax return to claim the credit even if you don't normally file. See Recovery Rebate Credit for more information.

You can find how and when we issued your first and second Economic Impact Payments using Get My Payment.

As of January 29, 2021, Get My Payment will no longer be updated for the first and second Economic Impact Payments.

~~If Get My Payment does not provide a payment date, a payment will not be issued and you may claim the Recovery Rebate Credit, if you're eligible. You must file a 2020 tax return to claim the credit even if you usually don't file.~~
